

Power corrupts. One only needs to look to Italy to see the corruption that occurs when the power that comes with control of the media is concentrated too narrowly. Please reject any further concentration of media control and seek ways to reverse the concentration that has already occurred.